

Camping with a dog

Check — this prepares you for everything!

Here are 2 short checklists that can support you in your preparations:

Choosing the Campsite

- Are dogs allowed? If yes, how many, and what are the costs per dog per day?
- Are there separate camp grounds for you and your dog?
- Is there an obligation to have your dog on a lead?
- Is there an area where dogs can run freely or is there access to a dog beach?
- Are there service stations for people with dogs (dog dirt bag dispensers, dog showers etc.)?

Packing List for your Dog

- EU pet passport & if necessary, certificates issued by your vet (for trips abroad)
- Possible further necessary documents
- Collar tag with your holiday address and phone number with the country code (Germany: 0049)
- Comfortable and familiar place to lie
- Towel
- First Aid Kit
- Bowls (for travelling as well)
- Means of attachment and/or mobile fence
- Supply of food, if necessary, check that there are cooling facilities
- Replacement lead, collar, harness
- Tracking lead or retractable lead
- Muzzle (possibly necessary on public transport or in city centres and for emergencies)
- Weather protection for the dog if necessary
